Subject: [External Email] October NAEOP Northeast Area News

Northeast Area NAEOP Members,

We have gone from school starting to glimpses of the upcoming holiday season in the blink of an eye. Halloween candy and Christmas decorations are side by side in the stores. I fear missing all I love about fall because life is so hectic. Despite the busy weeks, I hope you found time for professional development. I have a few webinars on my schedule which I look forward to. You might be a podcast person and there are still good books and journals out there to provide you with a new perspective.

Keep making yourself a priority... even when life tries to derail your plans. Also remember to share the word about NAEOP with others in your school and area. Send them information about the Fall Summit or share a copy of the September/October L.E.A.R.N. newsletter. Tell them why you joined NAEOP and how important our association is to you. Your connection to NAEOP is just the thing others need to see in order to become a member.

Have a blessed day,
Katherine
